

In case you're poorly, our nursing service, with a fully trained staff, will get you back on your feet, so it won't take long for you to take part on our extensive program again.

Our domicile lies in a location called Palomares, a district of Almanzora. This tranquil, typical Spanish place lies near Vera (5 km away) and only 700 m from the kilometric sandy beaches from Vera Playa. This lovely village disposes over a town centre with several restaurants and shops and has a large offer on leisure activities. Real highlights are locations as Garrucha, Villaricos and Mojacar. The distance to Almería, a city with cultural and historic interest, is about one hour's drive. The distance to the airport in Almería is about 45 minutes and to the Murcia airport 1 hour and 15 minutes.
